Whispers of Inspiration is eagerly anticipated by survivors and advocates across the country as meritorious quotes resonate the deep realities of those who have experienced abuse, trauma and triumphs in their live journey. In the debut of her first nationally recognized book, Jennifer Grube offers an eminently distinguished, personally inspired page-turner that will leave the reader with insight into the mind and soul of the survivor. This poignant publication holds a proverbial mirror to the emotion of the survivor while respecting anonymity. While trauma is often wrought with pain and anguish, this salutary book celebrates hope and healing for all to engage in its reading. John Calvaresi, National PR Firm notes, "This compelling publication will not only touch lives, but clearly has 'best seller' written all over it. In fact even prior to its launch, Colorado's World renowned Craig Hospital has pledged to make this fine book available for patients and families."

Jennifer Grube is a life-long advocate of children and a celebrant of hope and healing. For nearly three decades, she has dedicated her life to the protection of children and vulnerable people. Grube notes, "I am humbled by the opportunity to champion the voices of warriors overcoming trauma and I pledge to donate 100% of book proceeds to charitable and grossly underfunded prevention, education and counseling services for victims and survivors of trauma and violence." Her labor of love has been transferred into a sound, pragmatic practice that centers on child abuse prevention and treatment services geared to internally strengthen families. Ms. Grube has touched the lives of people from Washington to Florida and Maine to California as they have entrusted her with their trauma and triumphs. She has championed start-up projects for children, stabilized failing charitable organizations, developed critically needed shelters and raised over eighty three million dollars which has been used to positively impact thousands of at-risk families. Ms. Grube has served as a model leader, educator and mentor through regional and international forums and publications. Although not a mother herself, she has vowed to protect children, serve those in need and champion the voices of survivors. Her first book, Whispers of Inspiration offers motivational quotes for those who have been helped, those who need help, and those who are devoted to helping others.

"I am humbled by the opportunity to champion the voices of warriors overcoming trauma ..."
